

Join us for Adaptation Canada 2020

Our Conference Tracks

- › Financing Resilience
- › Showcasing Solutions
- › Ecological Resilience
- › Professional Practice and Capacity-Building
- › Raising Awareness and Broadening Engagement
- › Addressing Climate Change Inequities
- › Health
- › Youth

Meet the Keynotes

Per Espen Stoknes

TED Global Speaker,
Associate Professor and Psychologist

*Climate Psychology:
Why our brains ignore climate change – and what to do about it*

Sheila Watt-Cloutier

Environmental,
Cultural and Human Rights Advocate

*Everything is Connected:
Environment, Economy,
Foreign Policy,
Sustainability*

February 19-21, 2020

Sheraton Vancouver Wall Centre

Register today for Canada's national conference on climate change adaptation!

adaptationcanada2020.ca

Come be part of the conversation at Adaptation Canada 2020.
Together, let's raise our game on resilience!

Here is your opportunity to better understand the challenges of climate change - such as extreme temperature swings, severe storms, heavy precipitation, wildfires, sea level rise, floods and drought - that face Canadian communities, the environment and all sectors of the economy.

What does it mean for the future of the places we live, work and play - and what can be done to prepare?

See what's included in your registration.

- ✓ Open and closing plenary sessions with inspiring keynote addresses
- ✓ Your choice of over 60 panel and workshop sessions with knowledgeable presenters, across multiple tracks
- ✓ Welcome reception (with option to purchase guest tickets)
- ✓ Two networking lunches
- ✓ Opportunity to join a new Adapt Together Network
- ✓ Coffee and refreshments
- ✓ Poster sessions

Adaptation Canada 2020 is presented by

Fraser Basin Council